
Painting Autumn:

Colours of the Petschel House Garden

Two Days of painting the stunning colours of autumn in a historic bluestone homestead's cultivated garden. Come for one day or two.

Saturday 21 – Sunday 22 April 2018

10.00am - 4.00pm

Jenni Mitchell & Mervyn Hannan will demonstrate how to paint the essence of the subject quickly using different materials. Jenni will be using oil and gouache, Mervyn soft pastel.

Workshop will be based on one-to-one tuition. There are many beautiful subjects around the garden and lake with a variety of deciduous trees and shrubs. If the weather is unkind we will work under shelter from the deck and inside studio through large glass windows.

Bring and use your favourite painting materials. Limited quality materials are available from the studio. Bring lunch – refreshments provided.
